

Cryptocurrency price tracker

Nesta Parchment - Independent project

This is a simple web app that will track cryptocurrency prices. Similar to coinmarketcap.com. It will consist of reactstrap, therefore utilizing table components and the use of a cryptocurrency API if possible, and axios.

The structure will be a simple layout with a logo on the top left or perhaps center. In addition a search feature will be added for a users convenience. Color scheme will be unknown at the moment but leading towards cyan and dark gray. It will be mobile friendly and possibly transfer this project into the react-native course. A sample is below. Thank you
